SZEKSZÁRD is the county seat of Tolna County, situated in South-Hungary 150kms from Budapest. Szekszárd is a nice town with 36 000 inhabitants. Surroundings of the town there is a nice nature area with the Gemenc forest and the Danube river. It is a wonderful region with nice hills, gently sloping vineyards and traditional wine cellars. Our region is rightly famous for its good wines and it is rich in historical sights and natural facilities. Szekszárd is one of the important cultural centers of South Transdanubia and it has a university faculty. Exhibitions, scientific meetings, festivals and series of programs connected to wine attract thousands of visitors annually. There are possibilities to spend leisure time in the city: swimming pool, sport centre pubs and restaurants for young people.

Our organisation is a day care centre for children and families. It is placed in a house with a nice garden, not far from the centre of the town and from the coordinating organisation. The coordinating organisation is a youth centre, placed in a cultural centre. The coordinating organisation is a meeting point for the EVS volunteers and local young people.
